

A Plantronics Blackwire 420 Series headset is shown against a dark blue background. The headset features a black leather-like headband, two large black earcups with a mesh grille, and a flexible boom microphone. The right earcup has a red mesh grille. The headset is shown from a three-quarter view, with its reflection visible below it. The text "Easily portable" is positioned to the left of the headset, and "Call controls at your fingertips" is positioned to the right of the boom microphone.
